Seen. I do not know whether there is any particular reason against files on which His Highness passes orders being shown to the Councillors in all cases, as is done in the G & R. Secretary's Department. If there is no objection, may I suggest that the Dewan may kindly issue the required direction?

Existing procedure & what should be adopted for giving

Illegible 3/12/10

In the G.R.S. under the existing standing orders, all scheduled ~~cases~~ ~~non-scheduled~~ cases received with orders from H.H. are to be shown to the Councillors immediately after the issue of orders on the cases. In non-scheduled cases
also, the files with the orders of H.H.
are to be shown to the Councillor
concerned.

In recent practice it has been
usual to submit scheduled & non-scheduled cases, received with H.H's orders to both the Councillors, generally immediately
on receipt of the files from the Dewan & thereafter issue orders on them. The circulation to the Councillors takes very little time & causes no appreciable delay in the issue of orders. In very urgent cases orders are issued before the files are

are shown to the Councillors.

There is no inconvenience in the existing procedure in the F.R.S.

So far as the P.W.D & Geol Sects are concerned it would perhaps ~~be ca~~ delay the issue of orders to circulate the papers before the issue of orders, & the practice ~~Course~~ of circulating the papers to the Councillors for information after the issue of orders may be adopted. I would also venture to suggest that such circulation may be arranged for through the Secy F.R.S. so that he may also have an opportunity of keeping in touch with important questions dealt with in the other two Sects, which may often have to be dealt with as scheduled cases & places before the Council. Since the Secy F.R.S. ~~cals~~ deals with all cases brought before the Council, any previous knowledge of important cases of the Geol & P.W.D Sects will be of some

In regard to cases on which His Highness passes orders the existing procedure is as stated below: —

(1) All scheduled cases on which His Highness' orders are obtained are returned to this Secretariat with the initials of the Councillors.

(2) Non-scheduled cases, such as estimates, &c., submitted by the Dewan to His Highness the Maharaja are returned with orders direct to this Office and are not generally shown to the Councillors unless otherwise directed.

2. If it be desired that the files referred to in (2) above should also be seen by the Councillors, it would be preferable to return them to this Office after circulation to them. If, on the other hand, the procedure suggested by Mr. Balasundaram Iyer, viz., to circulate the papers after the issue of orders, be adopted, subsidiary questions requiring to be dealt with separately will be either lost sight of or their disposal will be unnecessarily delayed. To send up papers after they are finally disposed of, which when some technical points are involved takes a number of days, will be of little value as they become stale.

3. Besides, as far as I am aware it is not the practice in

The change of procedure suggested is likely to add to the work of the Secretariat without serving any useful purpose.

General and Revenue Secretary after His Highness has passed orders and before the files are sent here for issue of orders.

Non-scheduled cases are sent direct from the Dewan's office after His Highness the Maharaja has passed orders on them. They are not circulated to Councillors.

With regard to the proposal now made by the 2nd Councillor, it may be observed that all non-scheduled cases which are submitted to His Highness and on which orders have to issue (i.e. papers other than those which are submitted merely for information and are filed afterwards) go into the weekly proceedings volumes either in extenso or in abstract and the orders are marked to indicate the authority which has passed orders. Under the existing rules of Council business the Councillors have a right to call for such papers of Deptts. other than their own which they desire to see on a perusal of the order in the weekly proceedings volumes (vide the late Sir K. Sheshadri Iyer's opinion printed on page 25 of the compilation - "Rules and Orders relating to Business in the Council and in the Secretariat", No. 29) and the object of the 2nd Councillor's suggestion will be fulfilled by the free exercise of this power vested in the Councillors. There seems to be no particular object in submitting to the Councillors all non-scheduled cases.

But if it be decided that all non-scheduled cases should go up to the Councillors, the circulation should, for the reasons assigned by the D.P.W. Secretary and to save delay be before the files are sent for

Please circulate to the Councillors & Jute — As all the important orders appear in the monthly & weekly lists the next convenient course is for the Councillors to send for the papers in any case in which they may feel interested — [In important matters likely to have a bearing on Scheduled Cases that may come up before Council I am specially ordering papers be sent to Councillors]
